

South American Dark Matter Workshop

Instituto de Física Teórica - UNESP, São Paulo, Brasil

May 10 - 12, 2017

The goal of this international workshop is to explore the state of the art of the Dark Matter field, discussing the latest developments in all branches. By bringing together the South American and international community we aim to foster new collaborations and new long-lasting partnerships, at a most timely moment in the development of the field. There is no registration fee.
