

Phenomenological considerations about top-quark partial compositeness

Diogo Franzosi

Chalmers University of Technology, Sweden

I will discuss some phenomenological aspects of top-quark partial compositeness realized in 4D fermionic gauge theories, such as large anomalous dimensions, light pNGB and other composite states at colliders, top quark and top partner form factors, top partner searches and others.